

SHARE & CARE
COMMUNITY SERVICES GROUP

Require an After Hours on Call Support Worker
For the Djookanka Women's Refuge in Narrogin

This position supports women and children escaping family or domestic violence and women who for a variety of reasons have become homeless. This position requires the successful applicant to have

- mobile phone range (phone supplied)
- the ability to work the after hours roster, the hours being 4.45pm to 9am on call, this position allows you to work from home until called in.
- There may be the possibility of sleep over shift on occasions

The roster is Monday to Thursday night shift from 4.45pm to 9am.

This position is a family friendly one, allowing the successful applicant to be largely at home with the family whilst earning a wage.

You will need to live in the town of Narrogin or be able to attend the refuge within 10 minutes.

Continuous training and support is provided to all employees to assist in their achievement of work orientated goals and ensure best practice outcomes for the clients.

An application package can be obtained by calling 08-96222828

Send your CV and written applications addressing the selection criteria in the Job Description by the 21st February 2007 (closing date) to:

Ms C. Jones-Lummis
Chief Executive Officer
Share & Care Community Services Group
P.O.Box 365
Northam 6401
Western Australia